

Odyssey Stage Descriptions

Stage 1: New Zealand

Auckland to Christchurch (28 days-Jan 5 to Feb 1).

Fly into Auckland to begin a spectacular month of cycling in one of the friendliest and most scenic countries in the world. Spend a night with Maori natives, count lots of sheep and cattle, explore glaciers up close and spend time in adventure oriented Queenstown, where bungie jumping was invented. New Zealand is one of the most appealing bicycling countries in the world and should not be missed. World riders begin their tour in Los Angeles, California on Jan. 1, 2003.

Stage 2: Australia

Tasmania, Sydney & The Great Barrier Reef (24 days-Feb 2 to 25).

After circling much of the island of Tasmania, Australia's southern-most state, we will make a stop in Sydney to enjoy its sights and active nightlife. Then, it's off to northern Queensland to pedal along the world renowned Great Barrier Reef, the largest living organism in the world. Along with cycling, there will be time for hiking, exploring, diving or just kicking back.

Stage 3: Southeast Asia North

Hong Kong to Ho Chi Minh City via China (33 days-Feb 26 to Mar 30).

This is one of the most fascinating stages of Odyssey. Hong Kong is as modern as they come, while mainland China is still adjusting to its Western visitors. Pedal along some of the most unusual landscapes on earth as people cheer and treat us like heroes. Then cross into Vietnam to explore a country filled with some of the most welcoming and industrious people on earth.

Stage 4: Southeast Asia South

Phuket, Thailand to Singapore via Malaysia (25 days-Mar 31 to Apr 24).

The Malay Peninsula offers great cycling along warm coastal routes inhabited by very friendly people. The beaches are fantastic. Pedal from exotic Thailand and its Buddhist culture into the more conservative Muslim areas of Malaysia and Singapore. The weather will be great and the hotels are first rate.
